2009 SPRING GARDEN TOUR

Friday 30 October 2009

Heronswood Garden

Bring your friends and help fill our bus, but get in early as seats fill quickly!

COST: $50 all inclusive (transport, morning tea, guided tour, lunch and entry fees)
RSVP: Friday 23 October 2009

- Heronswood at Dromana on Victoria's Mornington Peninsula is a fabulous garden and the home of Digger's Seeds Club. You can spend hours just browsing around here, relaxing and looking at the view, the garden layout and rare and unusual plants.
- At Heronswood there are five separate vegetable gardens and it is within these gardens The Diggers have rescued the best heirloom vegetables. The garden has extensive plantings of flowers, including perennial borders, dry climate and cottage, annual gardens.
- Much of the delicious food grown in the garden is served in the wonderful food café, so not only can you see all the wonderful and rare foods growing but you can taste them too.
